ORDINANCE NO. 37

AN ORDINANCE prohibiting loitering near or about the County Jail. Transferring or attempting to transfer objects to prisoners and communicating or attempting to communicate with prisoners and providing penalties for violation thereof.

Section I. It shall be unlawful for any person, not a public officer or public employee connected therewith, to loiter near or about the County Jail at any time without the express permission of the Sheriff or his authorized deputies.

Section II. It shall be unlawful for any person, not a public officer or public employee connected therewith, to transfer or attempt to transfer any object of any nature whatsoever to any person confined in the County Jail without the express permission of the Sheriff or his authorized deputies.

Section III. It shall be unlawful for any person, not a public officer or public employee connected therewith, to communicate or attempt to communicate in any manner whatsoever with any person confined within the County Jail.

Section IV. Any person convicted of a violation of any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be punished by a fine of not exceeding Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) or imprisonment in the County Jail for a period not exceeding 90 days or both such fine and imprisonment.

PASSED and APPROVED this 15th day of ~~February~~ March, 1971.

BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS
PACIFIC COUNTY, WASHINGTON

Eldred Penttila, Chairman

Don Corcoran, Commissioner

Donald J. Bale, Commissioner

Attest:

Pacific County Auditor and
Clerk of the Board